- A. Lower income renters are leaving the city and are being replaced with higher income renters. Between 2015 and 2021, the share of renters with income below $25,000 decreased from 37% to 24%, while the share of renters with income over $75,000 increased from 18% to 30%.
- B. A large percentage of the community's workforce who are renting cannot afford to buy: Using data on home sales from the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act, an analysis of renters' ability to buy relative to the price of units for sale estimates that in 2021, 66% of the city's renters earned less than 120% of the 2-person area median income and only 10% of home sales financed with a mortgage were priced affordably for such households. It is likely that even higher income residents are not transitioning into homeownership because of high housing sales prices and other market conditions.
- C. To accommodate population growth, an estimated 4,668 new units (1,399 rental and 3,269 ownership) need to be added in Santa Fe County by 2030.
- D. The shortage of affordable rental home purchase opportunities has significant negative effects on Santa Fe's economy, as well as for families and businesses. The effects include:
  - 1. The local economy loses revenue when employees live elsewhere and commute to work rather than living in Santa Fe, because people tend to shop in the community where they live.
  - 2. Experience in other high-cost housing markets nationally has shown that, over the long term, jobs follow employees who move away in search of housing they can afford to buy.
  - 3. Employers struggle to recruit and retain employees and must pay higher wages to compensate for high housing or commuting costs.

- 4. A significant percentage of the Santa Fe workforce commutes from outside of Santa Fe.
- 5. Productivity suffers when employees face commutes of two to three hours on top of their workday.
- 6. Employers note that the availability of workforce housing is one of the more serious or critical problems in the city of Santa Fe.
- E. The city has adopted a five-year housing plan, identifying the city's housing needs, priorities, goals, and strategies.
- F. Pursuant to the New Mexico constitution's affordable housing exemption to the "anti-donation clause" and state enabling statutes governing the use of public funds for affordable housing, the city established its affordable housing trust fund in Article 26-3 SFCC 1987 to provide or pay all or a portion of the costs of acquisition, development, construction, renovation or conversion, financing, operation or owning affordable housing or infrastructure to support affordable housing.
- G. The affordable housing trust fund requires, but currently lacks, a meaningful dedicated source of revenue, which means
  - 1. Current requests for affordable housing funding far exceed the amount of funding available in the Affordable Housing Trust Fund in any given year.
  - There is a significant need for additional affordable housing that is more flexible than available through federal funds and that can better address unique local needs.
  - 3. Multi-year strategic funding is challenging.
- H. The community development commission and City's public review process involving committees and governing body review provide oversight for the Affordable Housing Trust Fund.

I. It is in the public interest to impose a duly approved high-end excise tax to fund the affordable housing trust fund.

WHEREAS, the Governing Body wishes to submit Ordinance 2023-22 to the City's voters for approval; and

WHEREAS, a resolution is the formal expression of the will of the Governing Body, and is used by the City to describe a proposed ballot question and submit it to the electors; and

WHEREAS, NMSA 1978, Section 1-16-3, requires the City to "file a resolution proposing the ballot question" with the county clerk, not less than seventy (70) days before the election at which the ballot question is proposed to be submitted to the voters.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE CITY OF SANTA FE that the Governing Body hereby proposes to submit the following question to the City's voters on the ballot of the regular local election on November 7, 2023:

PERMANENT FUNDING FOR AFFORDABLE HOUSING THROUGH EXCISE
TAX ON RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY PURCHASES OVER ONE MILLION DOLLARS

Should the City of Santa Fe create a new dedicated funding source for the City's Affordable Housing Trust Fund for affordable housing by imposing a three percent (3%) excise tax on the transfer of high-end residential property, imposed on the portion of the purchase price exceeding one million dollars ($1,000,000), with the amount above which the tax is imposed increased annually by an amount corresponding to the previous year's increase, if any, in the consumer price index for the western region for urban workers?
