DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Dear Senior Services Community,

July is upon us, and Summer is in full swing along with that warmer weather and the beginning of the monsoon season. Please remember to stay hydrated on these warm days of summer, dehydration is a common and serious concern for seniors, but there are simple things you can do to stay well-hydrated and feeling your best. Remember to drink fluids throughout the day even if you don't feel thirsty, keep a refillable water bottle with you, drink other drinks like tea, milk or low sugar fruit juices, eat water rich fruits and vegetables like watermelon, cucumbers, strawberries. Some of your medications may also increase your risk of dehydration so ensure you adjust your fluid intake accordingly.

I want to remind you the Mary Esther Gonzales Senior Center is a cooling station. If the temperature is hot out, please come to the center and cool off. All are welcome to have something to drink.

I want to wish everyone a Happy Fourth of July and hope you all enjoy Independence Day.

TOP NEEDS OF SANTA FE VETERANS OUTLINED

By Stan Cooper

According to the 2024 Census, there are 9,062 veterans in Santa Fe County, of which 7,688 are men and 1,031 are women.

What are the top needs of veterans in Santa Fe?

According to data compiled by the New Mexico Veterans Services Department, the top three priorities are:

Stable and affordable Housing

Homelessness and housing instability are major issues. Goodwill's Supportive Services for Veterans and the New Mexico Veterans Integration Center work to assist very low-income vets with move-in costs and past due rent. The federal Veterans Administration offers federal Housing and Urban Development (HUD) vouchers via the VA Santa Fe Clinic (5152 Beckner Road 505 986-5645), including transitional and permanent housing referrals.

Behavioral and Mental Health Support

The Santa Fe Vet Center (2209 Brothers Road, Suite 110, 505 988-6562) provides counseling (individual/group and telehealth), substance abuse resources and connects vets to community mental health resources. The Santa Fe VA Clinic supports same-day mental health visits, emergency care and telehealth which is important for treating Post Traumatic Stress Syndrome (PTSD). Military Sexual Trauma (MST), depression and addiction.

Accessible Medical Care and Transportation

Older veterans are more likely to face chronic conditions such as heart disease, diabetes and arthritis than younger veterans. Younger veterans, according to information provided by the state, are more likely to seek care for combat injuries such as PTSD and may be focused on rehabilitation or preventative care.

The Santa Fe Vet Clinic provides transportation for veterans to the VA hospital in Albuquerque. The New Mexico Department of Veterans Services (NMDVS), in conjunction with the VA, offers the Highly Rural Veterans Transportation Service, which can provide transportation for vets who live in certain rural areas to VA medical appointments.

If a veteran is in a crisis, what can they do immediately?

For veterans in crisis, they can call 988 for help. Then press 1 to connect to the Veterans Crisis Line which operates 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Did the New Mexico Legislature do anything for vets in 2025?

Earlier this year, the New Mexico Legislature passed legislation to assist veterans with their property taxes and with free access to state parks. Veterans currently get a standard $4,000 property tax exemption. House Bill 47, which was adopted, extends the exemption to $10,000 and is effective this year. It has adjustments for inflation in future years.

House Bill 161 provides veterans unlimited, free day-use and camping passes into state parks or other recreation areas administered by the New Mexico Energy, Minerals and Natural Resources Department. Veterans must apply for the NM State Parks Lifetime Veterans Pass from the NMDVS which will be issued beginning July 1, 2025.

The NMDVS Santa Fe office is located in the Batan Memorial Building, 407 Galisteo Street, Santa Fe, NM 87501. 505-827-6300

Stan Cooper is a long-time volunteer benefits counselor for the New Mexico Aging and Disability Resource Center and the City of Santa Fe Senior Services Division. He served 12 years as AARP State Director for New Mexico.

PRINCIPALES NECESIDADES DE LOS VETERANOS EN SANTA FE

Por Stan Cooper

Según el Censo de 2024, hay 9,062 veteranos en el Condado de Santa Fe, de los cuales 7,688 son hombres y 1,031 son mujeres.

¿Cuáles son las principales necesidades de los veteranos en Santa Fe?

De acuerdo con datos recopilados por el Departamento de Servicios para Veteranos de Nuevo México (New Mexico Veterans Services Department), las tres principales prioridades son:

Vivienda estable y asequible

La falta de vivienda y la inestabilidad habitacional son problemas importantes. El programa de Servicios de Apoyo para Veteranos de Goodwill y el Centro de Integración para Veteranos de Nuevo México (New Mexico Veterans Integration Center) ayudan a veteranos con ingresos muy bajos a cubrir los costos de mudanza y rentas vencidas. La Administración de Veteranos (VA, por sus siglas en inglés) ofrece vales del programa federal de Vivienda y Desarrollo Urbano (HUD, por sus siglas en inglés) a través de la Clínica de VA en Santa Fe (5152 Beckner Road, 505 986-5645), incluyendo referencias para vivienda transitoria y permanente.

Apoyo en salud conductual y mental

El Centro para Veteranos de Santa Fe (2209 Brothers Road, Suite 110, 505 988-6562) ofrece asesoramiento (individual, grupal y por telemedicina), recursos para el abuso de sustancias y conecta a los veteranos con recursos comunitarios de salud mental. La Clínica de VA en Santa Fe también ofrece visitas de salud mental el mismo día, atención de emergencia y servicios de telemedicina, fundamentales para tratar el Trastorno de Estrés Postraumático (PTSD, por sus siglas en inglés), el Trauma Sexual Militar (MST, por sus siglas en inglés), la depresión y las adicciones.

Atención médica y transporte accesibles

Los veteranos mayores son más propensos que los veteranos más jóvenes a enfrentar enfermedades crónicas como enfermedades cardíacas, diabetes y artritis. Los veteranos más jóvenes, según la información proporcionada por el estado, tienden a buscar atención por lesiones de combate, así como por PTSD y pueden enfocarse en la rehabilitación o la atención preventiva. La Clínica de Veteranos de Santa Fe ofrece transporte al hospital VA en Albuquerque. El Departamento de Servicios para Veteranos de Nuevo México (NMDVS), en conjunto con la VA, ofrece el Servicio de Transporte para Veteranos en Zonas Rurales, que puede transportar a veteranos que viven en ciertas áreas rurales para asistir a citas médicas con la VA.

Si un veterano está en crisis, ¿Qué puede hacer de inmediato?

Si un veterano está en crisis, puede llamar al 988 para pedir ayuda. Luego debe presionar 1 para conectarse con la Línea de Crisis para Veteranos, la cual opera las 24 horas del día, los 7 días de la semana.

¿Qué hizo la Legislatura de Nuevo México por los veteranos en 2025?

A principios de este año, la Legislatura de Nuevo México aprobó leyes para ayudar a los veteranos con sus impuestos a la propiedad y con el acceso gratuito a parques estatales.

Actualmente, los veteranos reciben una exención estándar de $4,000 en impuestos a la propiedad. La Cámara de Representantes aprobó el Proyecto de Ley 47, que amplía la exención a $10,000 y entra en vigor este año. La ley también contempla ajustes por inflación en años futuros.

El Proyecto de Ley 161 otorga a los veteranos pases gratuitos e ilimitados para uso diurno y para acampar en parques estatales u otras áreas recreativas administradas por el Departamento de Energía, Minerales y Recursos Naturales de Nuevo México.

Los veteranos deben solicitar el Pase Vitalicio para Parques Estatales para Veteranos de Nuevo México a través del NMDVS, el cual será emitido a partir del 1 de julio de 2025.

Stan Cooper es un consejero voluntario de larga trayectoria en beneficios para el Centro de Recursos sobre el Envejecimiento y Discapacidad de Nuevo México (New Mexico Aging and Disability Resource Center) y la División de Servicios para Personas Mayores de la Ciudad de Santa Fe (City of Santa Fe Senior Services Division). Sirvió durante 12 años como director Estatal de AARP en Nuevo México.

SUMMER SAFETY TIPS FOR SENIORS

1. Reduce Strenuous Activities

With high temperatures, you should stay in air-conditioned or cool places and out of the sun. Stay active indoors.

2. Keep Hydrated

Drink plenty of water, even if you're not thirsty! As you increase your intake of water, minimize your intake of caffeinated or alcoholic drinks, as these only dehydrate your body.

3. Protect Yourself in the Sun

Use sunscreen with SPF15 or higher when going outside, even on cloudy or overcast days.

4. Wear Light Clothing

Stock your wardrobe with light-colored and loose-fitting clothes to keep cool and stay comfortable.

5. Be an Early Bird or Night Owl

If you must be outside during a summer heat wave, limit your outdoor activities to the morning and evenings since the sun is the strongest between 10am and 4pm.

6. Watch For Heat Stroke

It's important to be mindful of signs of a heat stroke, which include confusion, disorientation, dry skin, excessive tiredness, headache, lethargy, nausea, and rapid pulse. Make sure you seek medical attention immediately.
