

An educational series sponsored by the City of Santa Fe & the Santa Fe River Commission

RIVER TALKS

The City of Santa Fe and the Santa Fe River Commission are proud to announce this year's topics covering all things River and Watershed. Talks begin in September and run through the first week of October!

September 7th, 5:30PM-7:00PM

Santa Fe Water Conservation Division Presents: Bees, Trees and Water and the Importance of Context Sensitive Environmental Stewardship

- Location: Santa Fe River at Camino Escondido (south bank near the Bee Motel sculpture.) Bring a camp chair or blanket as seating will not be provided.
- Presenters: Christine Chavez, City of Santa Fe Water Conservation Manager & Kaitlin Haase, Xereces Society Southwest Pollinator Conservation Specialist

September 13th, 5:30PM-7:00PM

Meeting EPA MS4 Goals Using Bio-Retention Basins and Green Stormwater Infrastructure

- Location: Camino del Bosque at Calle de Pinos Altos
- Presenters: Antonio Griego, NMDOT MS4 Coordinator, Caitlin Weber, Santa Fe County Sustainability Specialist & Aaron Kaufman, Southwest Urban Hydrology, LLC

September 17th, 9:00AM - 12:00PM

Forest Resiliency and Source Water Protection: An Upper Watershed Tour

- Location: Meet at the upper parking lot of the Randall Davey Audubon Center - 1800 Upper Canyon Road
- Presenters: Alan Hook, City of Santa Fe Water Resource Coordinator & Dennis Carril, Santa Fe & Carson National Forests Fuels Program Manager

September 21st, 5:30PM-7:00PM

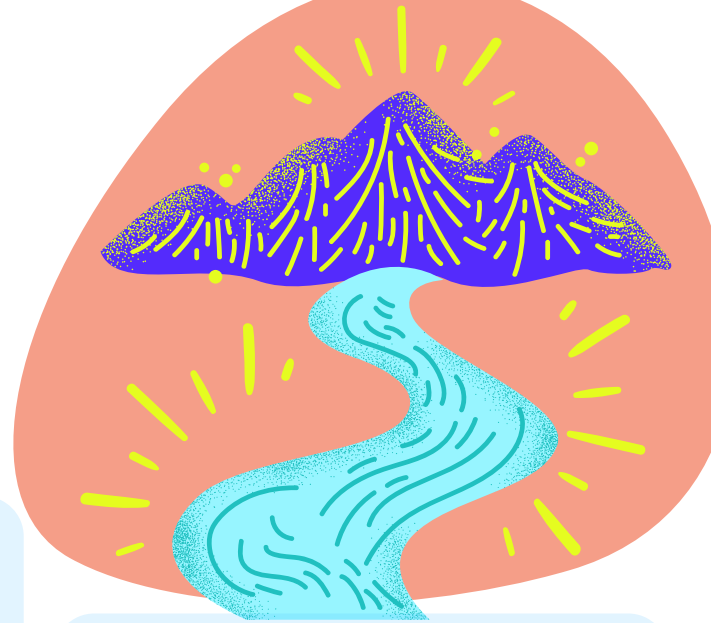

Who Owns the Water Here? An Illustrated Survey of the Administration of Santa Fe's Water Resource

- Location: Hydroelectric plant building in the Water History Park and Museum, 1209 Canyon Road at the corner of Upper Canyon Rd and Camino Cabra
- Presenters: Mac Watson, retired Architectural Conservator & Vic Johnson, Park Architect

September 27th, 5:30PM-7:00PM

Repairing the Santa Fe River Using Natural Channel Design and Native Vegetation: A Walking Tour

- Location: Ricardo Pedestrian Crossing (Santa Fe River Trail at Ricardo Rd- parking on Santa Fe River Rd)
- Presenters: John Critchfield, PE, William J. Miller Engineering & Todd Lopez, Rio Grande Return

October 1st, 3:00PM-4:30PM

Acequia Culture: A Historical Review of Santa Fe's Acequia Madre

- Location: 500 Market Station, Suite 200, Roundhouse Room (entrance next to REI in the Railyard)
- Presenter: Phil Bove, Acequia Madre Historian

October 5th, 5:30PM-7:00PM

Building Resiliency in the Arid Southwest One Household at a Time: How to Conserve Water and Improve Water Quality on a Residential Scale

- Location: 2053 Camino Lado
- Presenter: Reese Baker, The Rain Catcher, Inc.

To reserve your place or if you have questions contact Zoe Isaacson:

zrisaacson@santafenm.gov

505-955-6853

Due to limited space, all talks have a 25-person capacity. Masks encouraged!

FIND OUT MORE HERE:

SANTAFENM.GOV/RIVER_AND_WATERSHED

