

City of Santa Fe Fire Department
CADET CANDIDATE WRITTEN EXAMINATION

The written examination utilized by the City of Santa Fe Fire Department for cadet hiring is a two-hour, nationally validated, multiple choice entry level fire fighter test. The test is designed to measure your knowledge, skills, and abilities in order to be a successful firefighter.

The fire department does not mandate purchase of a study guide.

A study guide for the entry examination utilized by the City of Santa Fe Fire Department is available for purchase from Public Safety Compass. There are options for an online study guide or a printed copy. Both have the same content.

Entry-Level Firefighter Online Study Guide – Public Safety Compass

Entry-Level Firefighter 2nd Edition Print Study Guide – Public Safety Compass

The City of Santa Fe Fire Department has no financial interest in Public Safety Compass and does not encourage or discourage use of other study guides.