

Other Rates

Available only at Santa Fe Trails Administration office at 2931 Rufina Street during office hours.

3-Day Pass: Regular $5.00 or Reduced $2.50

5-Day Pass: Regular $7.00 or Reduced $3.50

15-Day Pass: Regular $10.00 or Reduced $5.00

Semi-Annual Pass: Regular $110.00 or Reduced $55.00

Annual Pass: Regular $200.00 or Reduced $100.00

Student Passes

Available only at Santa Fe Trails Administration office at 2931 Rufina Street during office hours or at participating Colleges: Santa Fe Community College bookstore and St. John's College bookstore.

31-Day Pass: $17.00

120-Day Pass: $60.00

Who Rides Free?

- Youth: Age 18 and younger
- Railrunner Passengers
- Transfers from North Central Regional Transit District (NCRTD)
- All U.S. Veterans ride for free on Santa Fe trails.
  - On the bus, show your U.S. Veterans affair id card, Rio metro freedom pass, dd214 with photo id, driver's license with veteran status, or your transit veterans id card and ride for free.
  - You may acquire a Santa Fe trails veteran card as well. For details on how to receive your transit veteran's id card:
  - Provide proof of veteran status with either an official department of veterans affairs id card, dd214 with a photo id, or a driver's license with veteran status.
- Active duty and personnel can show their military id on the bus for free fares.

Other free transit services:

- International folk art - Friday after 5:00 p.m., Saturday, Sunday
- Spanish market - Saturday, Sunday
- Indian market - Saturday, Sunday
- Zozobra - Friday after 5:00 p.m.
- Santa Fe Fiesta Weekend
- Christmas Eve Canyon Road Farolito Walk - after 5:00 p.m.

Half-Fare Program

Do you qualify?

Individuals who qualify for Santa Fe Trails Half-Fare Program are entitled to ride regular fixed-route buses or one-half the standard adult fare. A great value!

Who Is Eligible?

- Seniors: Any person 60 years or older with a valid ID.
- People with disabilities: Physician-verified physical or mental disability
  - Current letter from a doctor
  - Medicare Card
  - Other Transit Agency cards identifying a person as ADA
  - Current SSI Notice of award letter
  - Santa Fe Ride ADA card
  - Letter from Human Services indicating medical disability

Half-Fare ID cards are available at the Santa Fe Trails Administration office at 2931 Rufina Street during office hours.

Why Do You Need A Half-Fare ID Card?

- Standardizing the identification process benefits everyone.
- Boarding the bus will be faster and more convenient with our new Half-Fare ID Card.