Laurah Morningstar Winder Presents: Tasiawelanu and the Healing Blanket

Join us for a special event with local children's author Laurah Morningstar Winder as she shares the story of Tasiawelanu and the Healing Blanket. This heartwarming story follows Tasiawelanu, an Iroquois boy who moves from Santa Fe to New York City and struggles to fit in until his grandmother's visit changes everything. Celebrate Native American Heritage Month with this award-nominated tale of family, tradition, and adapting to new surroundings!

Friday, November 15 | 3:00PM - 4:00PM | La Farge Library Community Room at La Farge Library

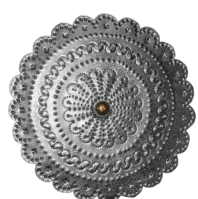

Saturday, November 23 | 2:00PM - 3:00PM | Southside Library Community Room at Southside Library

Tuesday, November 26 | 2:00PM - 3:00PM | Main Library Community Room at Main Library

Make a Pinch Pot!

Celebrate Native American Heritage Month with us! Our very own Southside Library staff member, Charlene, an enrolled member of the Menominee Nation will teach us how to make pinch pots. Charlene holds a BA in Fine Arts from the Institute of American Indian Arts.

Saturday, November 23 | 3:00PM - 4:00PM | Southside Library Cafe at Southside Library
