SANTA FE!

June 14 - 16

ALL EVENTS FREE TO THE PUBLIC

Friday, June 14th

Reception ~ 4:30 to 6:30pm ~ 1420 Cerrillos

Kick things off for the weekend with food and fellowship.

Blacks in Santa Fe: Seen and Unseen ~ 6:45pm

A documentary theater project by writing women of the diaspora, designed to uncover stories of Black visibility and invisibility in Santa Fe and the impact on us, our families, and our communities. * Use QR Code to RSVP

Saturday, June 15th

Juneteenth on the Plaza ~ 3pm to 9pm ~ Downtown

Join us for live music, poetry, vendors, food, and a joyful celebration on the Plaza as we honor this important moment in history and the ongoing journey toward freedom and equality. New Orleans-based Hot 8 Brass Band headlines the event. Come enjoy a day of jubilation and community in Santa Fe!

Sunday, June 16th

Juneteenth in the Park ~ 10am to 12pm ~ Federal Park

First Presbyterian Church of Santa Fe and the Santa Fe Soul Festival will host an African American Church service in Federal Park at 10:00 AM followed by line dancing, food and refreshments.
