

CITY OF SANTA FE

Open House: Santa Fe Land Use Development Code Rewrite Project

April 10 | 6PM - 8PM Santa Fe Convention Center
O'Keeffe | Milagro | Kearny Rooms

You're invited to a free open house to learn about the City of Santa Fe's upcoming land development code rewrite project and provide feedback on topics that will be addressed in the rewrite, including:

- Equity
- Housing Affordability
- Sustainable Development
- Heritage Preservation
- Natural Resource Management
- Efficient Development Review
- Code User-Friendliness
- Effective Public Engagement Process

City of Santa Fe Planning and Land Use Department and Clarion Associates staff will be in attendance, and refreshments will be provided.

Parking is available in the Santa Fe Community Convention Center Public Garage, and tickets will be validated at the open house. Spanish and ASL interpretation services will also be available.

Can't attend the meeting? Visit santafeldcupdate.org to take our brief online survey (available until Apr. 26), and sign up for email updates on the project!
