BACKGROUND AND SUMMARY:

The Children and Youth Commission is one of the City of Santa Fe's oldest standing committees, which was formed by Resolution and then Ordinance to serve in an advisory capacity to the City Council concerning policy recommendations related to child development and youth issues. The Commission which was recently merged with the Regional Juvenile Justice Board administers its CYFD funding to agencies looking to impact and prevent youth crime with the Santa Fe region. This year and beyond, we also intend to more directly support the people in agencies who help Santa Feans navigate a complex, sometimes challenging system of care, and to strengthen that system by supporting agencies in tracking and collecting data to show the scope of our community need and our collective impact on that need.

The Commission works cooperatively with the Community Services Department and Youth and Family Services Division staff throughout the year and advises on how to effectively plan, coordinate or support health and human issues in our community. The Commission has completed the process to review and recommend funding for contracting with nonprofit organizations.

PROCUREMENT METHOD:

This program consists of seven two-hour evening sessions (14 classes per person) that utilizes the evidence-based Strengthening Families Program curriculum. Facilitators work with the students and guardians both separately and all together. YouthWorks

Intensive Community Monitoring Program:

The Intensive Community Monitoring Program is designed to provide home and community-based monitoring and supervision of delinquent youth ages 11-18 that are at-risk to commit additional juvenile offenses.
