The Procurement Code, Sections 13-1-28 through 13-1-199, NMSA 1978, imposes civil and criminal penalties for its violation. In addition, the New Mexico criminal statutes impose felony penalties for illegal bribes, gratuities and kickbacks.

46. Default/Breach.

In case of Default and/or Breach by the Contractor, for any reason whatsoever, the City may procure the goods or services from another source and hold the Contractor responsible for any resulting excess costs and/or damages, including but not limited to, direct damages, indirect damages, consequential damages, special damages and the City may also seek all other remedies under the terms of this Agreement and under law or equity. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in the event of a default and/or breach under this Agreement, City shall give Contractor written notice of such default and/or breach, which notice shall (i) identify all the Contractor's breaches of this Agreement and (ii) state what the Contractor must do to cure such breaches. City's ability to exercise its rights under this Section 45 shall only be effective (i) if the Contractor does not cure all material breaches within thirty (30) day of receiving notice or (ii) in the case of material breaches that cannot be cured within thirty (30) days, the Contractor does not, within such thirty (30) day period, notify the Contractor of its intent to cure and begin with due diligence to cure the material breaches.

47. Equitable Remedies.

The Contractor acknowledges that its failure to comply with any provision of this Agreement will cause the City irrevocable harm and that a remedy at law for such a failure would be an inadequate remedy for the City, and the Contractor consents to the City's obtaining from a court of competent jurisdiction, following the expiration of the notice and cure periods set forth in this Agreement, specific performance, or injunction, or any other equitable relief in order to enforce such compliance. The City's rights to obtain equitable relief pursuant to this Agreement shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other remedy that the City may have under applicable law, including, but not limited to, monetary damages.

48. Default and Force Majeure.

The City reserves the right to cancel all or any part of any orders placed under this Agreement without cost to the City, if the Contractor fails to meet the provisions of this Agreement (subject to the notice and cure rights set forth in Sections 6 and 45 above) and, except as otherwise provided herein, to hold the Contractor liable for any excess cost occasioned by the City due to the Contractor's default. The Contractor shall not be liable for any excess costs if failure to perform the order arises out of causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the Contractor; such causes include, but are not restricted to, acts of God or the public enemy, acts of the State or Federal Government, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, freight embargoes, unusually severe weather and defaults of subcontractors due to any of the above, unless the City shall determine that the supplies or services to be furnished by the subcontractor were obtainable from other sources in sufficient time to permit the Contractor to meet the required delivery scheduled. The rights and remedies of the City provided in this Clause shall not be exclusive and are in addition to any other rights now being provided by law or under this Agreement.

48. No Liability If Property Not Acquired. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in the event Contractor determines, in its sole discretion, that a redevelopment of the property to be known as El Junco Senior Residence (the "Project") is not feasible or desirable, neither Contractor nor any of its affiliates shall have any obligations in connection with this Agreement or otherwise be liable for any cost, expense, or fee incurred by City or its replacement contractors in connection with the Project.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have executed this Agreement as of the date of the signature by the required approval authorities below.
